

Gray Creek Historical Society Presents ~

13th Annual Museum Days at Gray Creek Hall

Friday, July 24 to Monday July 27, 2015 12-6 pm

Above: The elusive photo of the original home of Sir John Eardley-Wilmot, which inspired the famous song "My Little Grey Home in the West". The house burned down in 1911.

Come and see:

- Bruce Paterson and his sketches
- The 25th Anniversary of the Gray Creek Pass
- Len Clark's early 1900's cognac found under 25 feet of water
  - Bad weather, snow slides and other natural chaos
  - Burden and Watson's houseboat
  - Rummage through the 'trunk'
    - Guess our 'What is it?'
    - Old time technology
    - And much more !

Free admission, yummy refreshments. Bring your reading glasses and come again with four days to browse.

Friday, July 24 to Monday July 27, 2015 12-6 pm

gchistory@theeastshore.net